

SPRINGLAKE PREPARED

ad utrumque paratus

(ad utrumque paratus = stay prepared)

The Department of Homeland Security says Americans need to start preparing for up to six months without electricity!

In other articles on our web page, we've shared warnings from various organizations and agencies who recommend three day's, seven days or longer worth of preparation. This report ramps that up, to six months worth of prepping. What do they know, but aren't sharing?

For details, go to our web page; <http://www.springlakeinc.com/>; click on "Emergency Preparedness," and go to; "WHAT IF..."

